Workshop on Functional English

In the present scenario, English is the most commonly used language for expressions. Now a days English words are very well mingled in our daily used language of interaction. Thus, with an objective to expose the students and develop professional English Language skills and improve spoken and written skills and also to help all the students to overcome from the hesitation of the use of English words and develop the confidence while communicating a 15 days' workshop on 'Functional English' was organised in the college in the month of February and March, 2023. The resource person was none other than the Supervisor of the college Dr. Sheetal Koradkar who has been awarded Ph.D. degree in English Literature.

Various aspects of English Language were covered to familiarize the students with the vocabulary so that they could make communication in meaningful, interesting and real life situation. The courses cover a wide range of skills including oral fluency, writing, presentation skills and grammar. The course also included making presentations, dealing with numerical data, telephoning socializing, report writing and letter writing, reading of certain article, magazines, newspapers and novels, group discussions, paragraph writing, etc.

Around 41 students have enrolled for this workshop making this initiative a success.
